

- While there is currently no quarantine required within the six New England states, Dr. Chan and DHHS, stated this could change due to the recent rise in Covid cases
- Dr. Chan and DHHS is also recommending to avoid gathering in groups with people who are not already part of your immediate close household contact.

Travel Guidance for Students and Staff

SAU #6